Richie's MAILBOX

There have been more and more letters concerning Mayda Munny lately. An enormous percentage of our mail has something about Mayda in it, and the following is a very typical comment. . .

"Dear Richie: Could you let Mayda Munny get into a little more stories? She is very pretty and deserves a fair chance. I think she has a crush on you.

—Tracie Crews,
Richmond, Va."

(I should add that Tracie also included a terrific drawing of Mayda in her letter. Tr[illegible]e, and the rest of you who have written about Mayda, we certainly will be telling you more stories about her. By the way, Tracie, I'm not at all sure about Mayda having 'a crush' on me. I get the feeling there's something else she's after.—R.R.)

* * *

"Dear Richie: I was wondering if you have the only Dollarmatian in the world? Also, who created your family's robot maid Irona?

—Steven Pierce,
Sacramento, Calif."

(Steven, as far as we know, Dollar is the only Dollarmatian in the world. If any of you ever hear of another, I wish you'd let us know. As far as Irona is concerned, she came out of one of Dad's factories. . .even though it's difficult thinking of her as not being human.—R.R.)

* * *

"Dear Richie: Have you ever been in trouble with your parents?

—Becky Sharpe
North, South Carolina"

(Absolutely, Becky, and I'm sure we've written about those things many times.—R.R.)

"Dear Richie: I love your comic Richie Rich Zillions.

—Steve Cash,
Madison Heights, Va."

(Steven, I'm glad you like our special new 68 page magazine, But please remember it's called Richie Rich ZillionZ —R.R.)

"Dear Richie: I was wondering how many languages your comics are written in. I would also like to see all your enemies team-up against you in an issue.

(Dan, as far as we can remember, my adventures have been translated into Spanish, Portuguese, Swedish, Norwegian, German and Italian. And please don't spread that idea of yours to any of my enemies. . .they might plan something that's too hot to handle.—R.R.)

Those were just some of the letters that recently arrived here. Some other correspondents were. . .
